Visitor Information

Ace the 19th:
Usually, golfers can walk right on Hanna's 18-hole course without a reservation and golf all day long for only $36 (weekdays).

Enjoy a burger or sandwich at the 19th hole and do it all over again on day 2.

Geo-Cache: All About the Hunt: Geo-Caches are abundant, waiting in scenic and unique locations to be discovered.
geocaching.com

Birding: Are you Watching? or Hunting? Both are entirely possible but not at the same time. Be sure to ask for the local bird watching brochure and see how many different species you can find.

Murals: The work of local artists beautifies many public buildings. Take your time walking or driving to discover them. Be sure to look for the Nickelback series.

History: Stroll through the past enjoying a full block of historic buildings filled with turn of the century artifacts. Many towns have museums but Hanna has a full village. (403) 854-4244 for hours.

Homestead: Follow the footsteps of railroaders, real estate speculators and early homesteaders with this informative historical walking tour. Pick up a free copy at the Visitor Information Centre. (open seasonally)
